The Most Holy Trinity

See Worship Book 859

The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with all of you. (2 Corinthians 13:13)

Any time we try to think about the Holy Trinity, we can feel stumped. This doctrine of our faith tells us that there is one God who eternally exists as three distinct Persons. But how can God be both one and three at the same time?

While our understanding of the Trinity has advanced and deepened over the centuries, this dogma of our faith will always remain a mystery. We believe that God is one – one in substance, one in essence, and one in nature. We also believe that the three Persons of the Trinity are consubstantial, that each of them is God, whole and entire.

At the same time, we also believe that God is three “Persons.” This doesn’t mean that God is three distinct, independent individuals, as human beings are separate persons. No, the distinction between Father, Son, and Holy Spirit doesn’t rest in their autonomy, but in the “relationship of each Person to the others” (Catechism of the Catholic Church, 252). In other words, God exists in a relationship of love – a love that he invites us to share.

Finally, we believe that God created us in his image and likeness. This means that he created us to be relational as well. Jesus’ command to love God and one another means that he wants us to strive to be united with each other. He wants us to be at one so that the world can have countless witnesses to the love of God.

So on this great day of celebration, let God’s love become your love. Let it move you to forgive those who have hurt you. Let it move you to speak a kind word, offer a blessing, and care for those in need. Let it move you to put aside divisions in your family. Let it move you to become a brighter light shining the love of God in a world darkened by sin and division.

“Father, Son, and Spirit, help me to put on love.”

CHORAL MUSIC AT THE 11:00AM MASS

The praises of the Trinity Arthur Wills (b. 1926)

To the Most High Trinity, God one in substance, belong one Godhead, equal Glory, coeternal Majesty: even to Father, Son, and holy Spirit, who maketh the whole world subject to his Law. May the blessed Godhead of the Father, the Son and the bountiful Spirit bestow on us his grace: who maketh the whole world subject to his Law. Glory be to the Father, and to the Son, and to the Holy Ghost: who maketh the whole world subject to his Law. Honor, might, and power and empire be unto the Trinity in Unity, to the Unity in Trinity: throughout the everlasting ages. To the Trinity be everlasting light, To the Unity be perpetual glory: throughout the everlasting ages. — Words traditional.

Communion Benedicimus Graduale Romanum, Mode IV

Let us bless the God of heaven and utter his praises before all who live; for he has dealt with us according to his mercy.

— Tobit 12:6.

Duo Seraphim Jacob Handl (1550-1591)

Two seraphim called one to another: "Holy, Holy, Holy, is the Lord God of hosts: heaven and earth is full of His glory."

Coffee and Donuts This Weekend

Don't forget that this Sunday we will be serving up a delicious variety of donuts plus coffee and juice after the 7am, 9:15 and 11:00 Masses. Please join us in the Parish Hall for great breakfast fare and equally enjoyable conversation. We welcome your help in making coffee and serving donuts after the Mass you attend. Please call the parish office if you can help.

Bienvenue!

St. Louis Church welcomes our newest parishioners: Steven Bowlin, Mark El-Dweek, Harold Evanoff, Alexander Cleaveland, Anna Hewitt, Katherine Kelly, Beverly Meloche, Joe Riskevich, MaryEllen Sylvester, and Helen Wagner.

Air Conditioning Collection Next Sunday

Just a reminder, that next weekend, June 17th and 18th, there will be a second collection to help defray the high cost of cooling the church, chapel, and parish hall during the summer months.

St. John Paul II Champions for Life Awards

Do you know of someone who devotes his or her time helping the poor, elderly, disabled, pregnant, or is committed to praying for Respect Life issues? He or she may be our next Champion for Life! The Archdiocese of Saint Paul and Minneapolis is looking to honor those who respect life at our annual St. John Paul II Champions for Life Awards. To submit a nomination or for more information, go to archspm.org/C4L. Questions? Please contact Nancy Schulte Palacheck at 651-291-4489 or MFL@archspm.org.

Congratulations and thank you to Isaac Drewes, our Organ Scholar for the past three choir seasons. Today is Isaac's last day at St. Louis. He has graduated from St. Olaf College, and will be starting graduate work at the Eastman School of Music in Rochester, NY, this fall. Isaac recently won a Pogorzelski-Yankee Scholarship for $15,000 toward organ study, which is renewable next year. Combined with his scholarship from Eastman, he has fully financed his Master's Degree. All five of St. Louis' past Organ Scholars are either working towards doctorates, or engaged in full time liturgical music positions (including one at Washington National Cathedral), or both. Thank you again, Isaac!
