MEDITATION

The Sixth Sunday in Ordinary Time

Whoever obeys and teaches these commandments will be called greatest in the kingdom of heaven. (Matthew 5:19)

What would our world be like if everyone lived out the teachings that Jesus gives us in today's Gospel? It would be a world where people work out their differences peacefully. Where husbands and wives are always faithful to one another. Where no one tells a lie or engages in dishonest deals.

Such a world might seem impossible, but this is the world that God has always intended for his people. It's the kingdom that Jesus announced was "at hand" at the beginning of his ministry (Matthew 3:2). It's the kingdom that he ushered in by his death and resurrection. If it seems hidden in some ways, that's because it's still under construction! We won't experience it fully until Jesus comes again.

But that doesn't mean we can't at least begin to experience God's kingdom today. In fact, God is calling us to build the kingdom. How? We can begin by taking Jesus' Sermon on the Mount as a blueprint for our lives. He calls us to pray and not worry about our daily needs. To care for the poor. To forgive as God has forgiven us. To love our enemies. To turn the other cheek. When we do these things, we make God's kingdom visible.

Because Jesus' teachings can be challenging, we might try to make excuses for ourselves or think that only the saints can obey them. But the more we try to live out Jesus' words, the more his Spirit fills our efforts with his divine grace—and the more we come to realize that it doesn't depend only on us, but also on God's power within us.

Today at Mass, ask the Lord how you might bring God's kingdom to the places where you live and work. Rely on his teachings to guide you and the Spirit to empower you. Above all, stay alert, because opportunities to build the kingdom of God will surely come your way!

"Jesus, may your kingdom come through me and all your people!"

Sirach 15:15-20 Psalm 119:1-2, 4-5, 17-18, 33-34

Fr. Morin's father and brother built the Grotto of Our Lady of Lourdes in the Winter Chapel.

Years ago his nephew, also named Bobby*, wrote the description of that project in these words: "First they built a wooden framework and then they dipped burlap (old gunny sacks) into liquid plaster of paris and nailed the wet material on to the wooden framework, with large-headed roofing nails. As the plaster of paris hardened, they pushed and pulled the wet burlap to form a simulated hewn stone appearance. After the material set, they "dashed" the surface with large brushes dipped into fluid plaster of paris to get a textured finish. Then the painters applied the artistic finish."

Fr. Morin died in 1990 and is buried in the Marist plot at Calvary Cemetery.
Photo taken at the time of his silver jubilee as a priest.

†Robert (Bobby*) Morin (2020) and †Rosemary (née Andert) (2018)
were married in our church on February 14, 1953.
