MEDITATION

June 2, 2024

The Most Holy Body and Blood of Christ

We will do everything that the Lord has told us. (Exodus 24:3)

On Mount Sinai, Moses presided over the swearing of a sacred covenant between God and the people of Israel. After explaining the provisions of this covenant, Moses sprinkled the people with the blood of sacrificed animals, and the people responded by promising to “heed and do” everything God had commanded (Exodus 24:7). They have their marching orders, and they intend to follow them.

The Israelites’ response to Moses is clearly admirable and pleasing to the Lord, but today’s feast of the Body and Blood of Christ invites us to consider another aspect of our response to him. We are so used to focusing on “doing,” but at its heart, the mystery of the Eucharist is focused on “being” more than “doing.” Just as the bread and wine become the Body and Blood of the Lord at Mass, so do we become the body of Christ when we gather for worship and receive him in Communion. So when we say “Amen” just before receiving the Eucharist, we can say in our hearts, “We will be everything the Lord has made us to be.”

This is one of the greatest miracles of our faith. As the Fathers of the Second Vatican Council taught, “Really partaking of the body of the Lord in the breaking of the Eucharistic bread, we are taken up into communion with him and with one another” (Lumen Gentium, 7). Communion—with Christ! And that communion, received in faith and founded on grace, changes us. It fills us with divine love and divine grace. It transforms us so that we become more like Jesus.

Of course, it’s a good thing to do what God is asking us to do. But today is a perfect day to celebrate who you are becoming. Treasured and redeemed and beloved, you are taking on the likeness of the very One you are receiving! “Jesus, thank you for giving me a share in your Body and Blood, your Soul and Divinity!”

This Day of Reflection is for all widows; both recent and longtime widows will experience the Church's concern for them as they navigate a status in life they did not choose. The cost for this retreat is $30 and includes breakfast and lunch. Call the parish office with any questions at 952-929-3317.

Catholic Young Adults: The Musical

Thursday, June 20 – Sunday, June 29, St. Agnes School (Helene Houle Auditorium), St. Paul. At Catholic Beer Night, the CYAs hear a rumor that St. Stephen's is closing! Can they rally together to find a way amidst the chaos of their own dating novenas, come-and-sees, and lust for Latin to beat the odds and do what no one ever expected a band of young adults to do... save the parish? Fr. Kyle Kowalczyk's new musical distills the essence of Catholic young adult subculture in an uncomfortably accurate, unexpectedly poignant, and reverently hilarious brew. Learn more and get tickets today and receive $5 off using coupon code: SaintStephen0 at <https://missedtheboattheatre.com/catholic-young-adults-the-musical>.
