MEDITATION

June 23, 2024

12th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Daily Meditation: Mark 4:35-41

Who then is this whom even wind and sea obey? (Mark 4:41)

It wasn't an unreasonable question for the disciples to ask. They had been with Jesus and seen him perform healings, teach crowds of people, even dispute with religious leaders. But they had never seen anything like this! Sure, as fishermen they knew how to survive violent squalls on the Sea of Galilee. But never had anyone done it by calming the wind and the waves with a command!

The disciples' question is a good one for you to ask as well. Scriptural answers can help you not only recognize but also proclaim the power and goodness of the Lord.

Who is this? He is the Word of God, who was at the Father's side from the beginning, the One through whom all things came to be (John 1:2-3). He was an active participant when the Father created everything. He is just as involved in your life.

Who is this? He is the same God as the One who "shut within doors the sea" and "set limits for it" (Job 38:8, 10). Since he created all things, he has authority over those created things. Nothing is beyond his control, not even the greatest challenge you may be facing today.

Who is this? He is the One who, today's responsorial psalm tells us, "hushed the storm to a gentle breeze" (107:29). He can bring peace to the turmoil in nature, and he can do the same for the turmoil in your own heart.

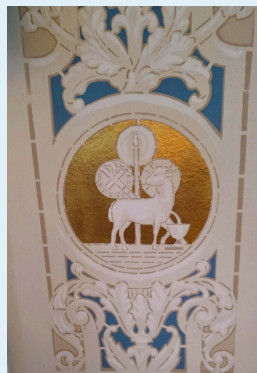

Who is this? He is the One whose word goes forth and accomplishes his purposes and plans in this world (Isaiah 55:11). He spoke, and all things came into being. His word has the same power in your life, the power to bring the healing, forgiveness, and peace that he proclaims.

Who is this? This is Jesus, eternal Son of the Father, who creates and sustains all things (Colossians 1:16-17). He holds all of creation together. And he holds you and your loved ones as well.

"Jesus, I praise you, for through your word, you show me who you are—the all-powerful God!"

Job 38:1, 8-11 Psalm 107:23-26, 28-312 Corinthians 5:14-17

Among the many artistic renditions of fleurs-de-lys throughout the church appears delicate stencil and handwork on the columns on each side of the Apse. Four colors were stenciled in layers and followed with highlights done by brush painstakingly applied. As you look further up the columns you will see the PAX symbol. (In Latin Pax vobiscum – Peace be with you) and the pattern repeats again. Did you know? One section on each side of the proscenium arch had retained the stenciled artwork from the past. Conrad Schmitt Studios was commissioned to replicate the existing artwork. (photo by Mark McCoy) (original installation year unknown)

A Change in Sunday Mass Time Coming in July

As was presented by Father Hurtuk recently was a consideration to combine the 9:15am and 11:00am Masses into one Mass at 10:00am. After receiving input from our parishioners, Father has made the decision to modify the Mass times for Sundays to the following schedule: Saturday: 5pm. Sunday: 7:00am, 10:00am and 12:30pm. This change will take place beginning the weekend of July 6th-7th.
