MEDITATION

June 30, 2024

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

They were utterly astounded. (Mark 5:42)

Of course they were astounded! The disciples and the parents of this young girl had just seen Jesus raise her from the dead. Now she was walking around as if she had never been ill. And just a few minutes earlier, a woman suffering from a hemorrhage for twelve long years had been instantly cured just by touching Jesus' cloak (Mark 5:27-29). Both were amazing displays of power, and both demonstrated that Jesus was no ordinary rabbi.

We don't know if the young girl's father or the afflicted woman really understood that Jesus was the Messiah when they reached out to him. But they must have sensed that he came from God, given what they had already heard about him. Clearly, they believed in his power enough to approach him for healing. Perhaps they didn't know how their encounter with him would end, but they put their hope in him and stepped out in faith.

We do know that Jesus is the Son of God, and yet sometimes we can find ourselves doubting his power. Can he really heal me? Can he really forgive my most shameful sins? Will he one day raise me to new life? And yet the kinds of stories like the ones in today's Gospel reading didn't just happen in the past. Jesus still acts powerfully in our own time and place. Conversions, healings, answers to prayer—these continue to abound. So believe in Jesus' power, as Jairus and this woman did. Step out in faith and ask for what you need. Keep asking even if you don't see immediate results. Even if it seems as if you're not getting what you're asking for, don't give up hope! Believe that Jesus, Lord of heaven and earth, has the power—and the desire—to heal you and give you new life. This is why he came to earth, and he will do it, in his own perfect time and way!

"Jesus, I am reaching out to touch your cloak today. Heal me and pour your life into me!"

Wisdom 1:13-15; 2:23-24      Psalm 30:2, 4-6, 11-13
2 Corinthians 8:7, 9, 13-15

Used with permission from The Word Among Us

Sunday, June 30th is the Feast of the First Martyrs for the Holy Roman Church. When the Winter Chapel restoration was completed and the newly carved Corpus and Crucifix were installed, the lighting serendipitously cast shadows on the wall bringing to mind the two thieves that were crucified along side Jesus. Their names were Dismas and Gesta. "Now one of the criminals hanging there reviled Jesus, saying, "Are you not the Messiah? Save yourself and us." The other, however, rebuking him, said in reply, "Have you no fear of God, for you are subject to the same condemnation. And indeed, we have been condemned justly, for the sentence we received corresponds to our crimes, but this man has done nothing criminal." Then he said, "Jesus, remember me when you come into your kingdom." Jesus replied to him, "Amen, I say to you, today you will be with me in Paradise." – Luke 23:39-43. Saint Augustine and Saint Cyprian regard Saint Dismas as a martyr, since he professed God even when most of the Apostles were absent. Dismas died not merely a saint, but a great saint. When the body of Dismas was taken down from the cross, he was already with God in Paradise. He went on the cross a sinner, but came down a great saint.
