MEDITATION

Sunday, March 12, 2017

The Second Sunday of Lent,

See Worship Book 790

This is my beloved Son. (Matthew 17:5)

Jesus' Transfiguration was one of the most magnificent displays of God's glory the world has seen. The purpose of the Transfiguration was to give his apostles, and all of us, a deeper understanding of who he is. So let's see what we can learn from it.

Clearly, this was a dramatic revelation for Peter, James, and John. They never forgot what happened that day. Decades after it happened, John wrote, "We saw his glory" (John 1:14). Peter said, "We had been eyewitnesses of his majesty . . . when that unique declaration came to him from the majestic glory" (2 Peter 1:16, 17). The Transfiguration showed them that the kingdom of God that Jesus had been preaching would be characterized by glory. But it also encouraged them and strengthened them for the ordeal of the cross that lay before them. For as they learned at Calvary, the glory of God comes not only through displays of magnificence, but also through self-giving love—a love that embraces even death.

The Holy Spirit wants us to learn both of these concepts of glory. He wants us to see that Jesus is glorified every time we worship him at Mass and in prayer, and he is glorified every time we go out of our way to help someone. He is glorified when we reverence him during Eucharistic adoration, and he is glorified every time we confess our sins or forgive someone who has hurt us.

Let these lessons about glory and self-giving love sink into your heart. As you dwell on the glory of Jesus' Transfiguration, see that it is a glory that comes because of his cross. Then, tell him that you want to be changed into his glorious image. Ask him to take your every act of love and fill it with his presence. It really is possible for us to live "for the praise of his glory" (Ephesians 1:12).

"Jesus, open my eyes to the glory that you displayed before Peter, James, and John. Let that glory reign in my heart."
