The Most Holy Trinity

See Worship Book 860

In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit. (Matthew 28:19)

Often enough, our thoughts about the Holy Trinity tend to focus on the question of logistics: how can there be one God in three Persons? We may think of St. Patrick's analogy of the shamrock with its three leaves to help us. But no single picture can possibly explain the complexity, the depth, and the beauty of our God.

Rather than a mathematical mystery to be solved, the Trinity is a spiritual mystery to be savored. It is God revealing himself to us and convincing us of his love and care for us.

Father. Revealing himself as our heavenly Father, God proved that he is not a distant, fickle, or vindictive god. He is a God for whom family is everything. Like a father, he wants to be close to you. He promises to care for you and look after you. He wants nothing but good for you. He has gone so far as to name you his heir!

Son. When God came to earth, he didn't come in power and majesty. Rather, he "emptied himself" and became one like us (Philippians 2:7). Many were expecting a Messiah who would lead Israel to military victory and political independence. But Jesus came as brother and friend. He established his kingdom, not by force, but by self-sacrificial love. His message of mercy is meant to melt our hearts, not make us cower in fear.

Holy Spirit. God didn't disappear when Jesus ascended to heaven. Quite the opposite: he became even closer. God dwells in your heart! He is always with you, always ready to pour out his love and to make you more like him. He is always with the Church, feeding us with word and sacrament. He is always in the world, forming us into one family in Christ.

This is the true mystery of the Trinity: that our God—Father, Son, and Holy Spirit—loves us deeply and treats us with great tenderness and mercy.

"Holy God, we praise your name! Lord of all, we bow before you!"

POSTCOMMUNION HYMN 472

Come down, O Love divine

CHORAL MUSIC AT THE 11:00 AM MASS

Come thou Holy Paraclete

David Hurd (b. 1950)

Come, thou Holy Paraclete, and from thy celestial seat, send thy light and brilliancy. Father of the poor, draw near; Giver of all gifts be here; Come, the soul's true brilliancy. Come, of comforters the best, of the soul the sweetest guest, come in toil refreshingly: Thou in labor, rest most sweet, thou art shadow from the heat, comfort in adversity. O thou Light, most pure and blest, whine within the inmost breast of thy faithful company. Where thou art not, man hath nought; Every holy deed and thought comes from thy Divinity. What is soiled, make thou pure, what is wounded, work its cure; what is parched, fructify. What is rigid gently bend, what is frozen warmly tend; Straighten what goes erringly. Fill thy faithful, who confide in thy power to guard and guide, with thy sevenfold mystery. Here thy grace and virtue send; grant salvation in the end, and in heaven felicity. Amen, alleluia.

— XIIIth century; translated John Mason Neale.

Communion Factus est repente

Graduale Romanum, Mode VII

Suddenly, a sound came from heaven like the rush of a mighty wind, in the place where they were sitting, alleluia; and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and announced the great things God had done, alleluia, alleluia. — Psalm 67:33,34.

Antiphon Sub tuum praesidium

Mode VII

Under thy protection we seek refuge, Holy Mother of God; despise not our petitions in our needs, but from all dangers deliver us always, Virgin Glorious and Blessed.

— Oldest extant Hymn to the Blessed Virgin; circa 250 A.D.

Rise up, my love

Healey Willan (1880-1968)

Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away; for lo, the winter is past, the rain is over and gone; the flowers appear upon the earth; the time of singing of birds is come. — Song of Solomon.

Anointing of the Sick. After All Masses

We are very much in need of more Eucharistic Ministers to read at Mass, serve at Mass and of course distribute the Eucharist. If you can help out in any of these three areas or all three we would be most appreciative. Please call Cindy at 651-687-9385.

Marriage In Christ Seminars

Throughout 2018, several parishes will be hosting Marriage in Christ Seminars. The five-week seminar is for all married couples. Good habits and the power of the Holy Spirit transform all marriages. Find out more details and a list of parishes at archspm.org/marriageinchrist.

Eucharistic Procession

The 14th Annual Northeast Eucharistic Procession will be held Sunday, June 10th, 2018. Services begin at 3pm at Holy Cross Church at 1621 University Avenue NE. Minneapolis. For additional information, go to the website www.ourholy cross.org/necatholiccollective.

Team Louie

The response for "Team Louie," parishioners volunteering to prepare and serve meals for the homeless at Catholic Charities Dorothy Day Center, to date has been fabulous! Thank you to all of you who have signed up to help. If others are interested in partaking in this service project we'd love to have you on "the roster."

Dorothy Day is such a special place! It is where Jesus would eat with the people with whom he would dine!

The time slot available is Lunch, the second Sunday of every month. It has a two part component with 3-4 people needed to prepare meals (8:30AM-11:AM) at the Catholic Charities building off Highway 52 in St. Paul, and then 8-10 people needed for serving lunch (11:15AM-1PM) at Mary Hall, St. Paul. For more information regarding serving the less fortunate of our community as well as getting to know fellow parishioners better, contact RoseMary ("Rosie") Januschka at rmjanuschka@gmail.com or call 651-769-4119.

Memorial Day Masses will be held rain or shine at 10am at the cemeteries listed below:

Resurrection Cemetery 2101 Lexington Avenue South
Mendota Heights, MN 55120

St. Mary's Cemetery 4403 Chicago Avenue
Minneapolis, MN 55407

St. Anthony's Cemetery 2730 Central Ave. Northeast
