Twenty-seventh Sunday in Ordinary Time

It is not good for the man to be alone. (Genesis 2:18)

This almost sounds like it could be the punch line of a joke about men needing the gentle guidance of women. But this reading is not just about men. And while it's often used in the context of marriage, it's not just about marriage. It applies to all of us, married or single, male or female. We need each other. We have been made in the image and likeness of our triune God, who is a communion of persons. That means we need upbuilding relationships with other people. It is simply "not good" for us to be alone (Genesis 2:18).

Notice that even after Adam named all the animals, none were found to be "the suitable partner for the man" (Genesis 2:20). That's because we can only truly have "partnership" with other human beings created in God's image and likeness. And that communion, like the life of the Trinity, usually involves the giving of ourselves. The Sacrament of Marriage is a powerful sign of that love. But it's also on display in the relationships between good friends, in volunteers who work together to serve the poor, or in priests or religious sisters and brothers who support one another in the faith.

It's not automatic, though. No one experiences perfect communion with other in this life; we have to work on our relationships. We have to keep inviting Jesus into them. So today, take the next step toward the communion that God made you for. Pray for good friendships to come into your life. Pray, too, that God would help you deepen the relationships you do have. Make it a priority to spend time with them. Get to know the people you're serving with in your parish. Maybe you could reach out to someone who seems alone.

Even when you feel lonely, know that you're never alone. The One who made you for something more is always with you. Trust that he will build the communion he desires for you.

"Lord, thank you that you have made me for community, just like you."

THANK YOU FROM FR. JOE

Thank you so much to everyone who attended and participated in my Jubilee Mass of Thanksgiving and reception on September 21. Your attendance and support are very much appreciated.

I would also like to thank some of the people who made the entire event happen: Larry Martin our choir director/organist and Patrick Coleman our cantor along with choir members Chany Floeder, A. J. Larsen, Shellie McKane, Del Showalter; Rich Graner for photography and his sons Charles and Henry for serving; Amanda Graff as Lector and Paula Graff as Eucharist Minister. For the reception, thanks go to Nancy and Dean Hafner for heading up the committee along with Peggy Anfang, Paula Graff, Brian Harens, Bev Kontola, Del and Scott Showalter, Sandy Stadtherr and Helen Wagner. Also, special thanks to Bev Kontola for donating the beautiful flowers that graced all the tables in the parish hall.

Ten members of my family attended, and they very much enjoyed meeting so many of you. Also, thank you for the many cards and gifts for which you will receive a handwritten note of gratitude in the coming days. It was a wonderful event, and trust that all of you enjoyed it as much as I did. We'll have to do it again some time!

God Bless!

Fr. Joe Hurtuk, SM
